Washington, D.C. -- TOUR INFORMATION

U.S. Capitol- If you're bringing a group of less than 15 people to Washington, call the Congresswoman's office to arrange a tour of the U.S. Capitol led by a member of her staff. For groups of more than 15 people, VIP tours are conducted Monday through Friday at 8, 8:10, 8:20, 8:30, and 8:40 am. Tours can be scheduled up to 6 months in advance by calling the Congresswoman's office. Constituents with disabilities can be accommodated.

Gallery Passes- Passes to sit in the House Gallery and watch the proceedings on the House floor are available through the Congresswoman's office. Simply call and request them. If you are taking a tour of the Capitol led by a staff member, passes to the gallery are handed out at the beginning of the tour. Your group will visit the gallery upon the conclusion of the tour. If you are not taking a tour led by a staff member of the Congresswoman, visit her office before your tour and you will be given House Gallery passes.

White House- Currently, White House tours are only open to school groups, veterans groups, and military with at least 10 people. Tickets must be requested at least 5 weeks in advance by calling the Congresswoman's Washington, D.C. office. VIP tours are given Tuesday through Saturday at 8:15, 8:30, and 8:45 am.
